

REGULATIONS AND RULES GOVERNING THE RESIDENTIAL HALL

1. Purpose
 - 1.1. The Residential Hall constitutes an important part of the University. To this end, the Code of Conduct and Procedure¹ formulated by the University shall automatically apply to all the residents.
 - 1.2. These Regulations aim to support and strengthen the responsible and sustainable behaviour of all residents living in the on-campus Residential Hall (RH) in order to achieve the following objectives:
 - 1.2.1. To safeguard the safety of all residents and the security of RH premise and properties;
 - 1.2.2. To provide a supportive environment to foster personal and academic development;
 - 1.2.3. To build and maintain a caring and harmonious relationship among all residents;
 - 1.2.4. To promote a responsible lifestyle.
2. Scope
 - 2.1. Pursuant to the objectives set forth above, the University requires all residents and their guests to comply with these regulations and rules.
 - 2.2. The Residential Hall is managed by the Residential Hall Office, hereinafter RHO.
 - 2.3. 24h warden is on duty at the Residential Hall. S/he responds and supports the works of RHO.
 - 2.4. There are three types of residential spaces provided in Residential Hall.
 - 2.4.1. The Residential Hall Dormitory (5/F to 12/F): All Students of USJ and authorised guests are eligible for these rooms. On dormitory floors, shared bathrooms, shared pantry, and communal areas are provided. On each floor, there are single rooms and bunk bed double rooms that are available for females from the 5th-9th floor and males from the 10th-12th floor.
 - 2.4.2. The Studio Apartment for Guests (14/F & 15/F): Guests eligible for these rooms are only USJ authorised guests including visiting academics, conference speakers, or groups from organisations holding an MOU or agreement with USJ. Each studio apartment can accommodate maximum two people. There are equipped kitchen and private bathroom in each apartment.
 - 2.4.3. The Studio Apartment for Residents (16/F & 17/F): Only USJ full time staff and postgraduate students are eligible to apply for these rooms. Each studio apartment can accommodate maximum two people. There are equipped kitchen and private bathroom in each apartment.
